No place for financial bribery in candidate selection process: President Chamisa

Citizens Coalition for Change leader, Advocate Nelson Chamisa has declared that the party will not endorse individuals who use financial muscle to clinch top leadership positions.

This follows reports of some individuals allegedly using their financial resources to influence the party's candidate selection process.

Last week, Bulawayo province had an opportunity to nominate its candidates through the party's citizens' caucus, a platform for aspiring candidates to present their manifestos.

Although the process concluded well, President Chamisa warned that any nominated candidates who used financial influence to secure their positions will be excluded when the final list of successful candidates is released.

President Chamisa emphasized the importance of selecting representatives who are not you! financially compromised or tainted by scandals. He stated that the only new leaders who should serve the country are those who are untainted and "not playing for the other team."

According to President Chamisa, those who use money or offer trinkets to buy off citizens or bribe their way to leadership positions cannot serve Zimbabwe effectively, arguing that change and new leadership is necessary for the nation.

In a tweet, he asserted, "NOT DIGGERS AND DEALERS... The Citizens representatives have been chosen by communities across Zimbabwe. It's so exciting that we have credible representatives for Parliament and Council.

Whoever is after self-gain or self-care will not serve in the new! Whoever uses money and trinkets to buy citizens or bribe voters can't serve. Whoever is tainted, compromised or plays for the other team can't serve! Zimbabwe needs change and deserves truly new leaders! Blessings to

Rural Mobilisation Educates Bulilima Citizens For August 23 Election

■ The Citizens' Coalition for Change (CCC) continues to see success with its rural mobilization program, known as Mugwazo, as the party's change champions work to mobilize the base and secure a huge victory in the upcoming general elections.

On Tuesday, Bekezela Maplanka, the change champion for the party, along with a team of other change champions, visited Vulindlela, Bulilima in Plumtree to educate the rural citizens on the upcoming elections.

The Champion urged the residents of Bulilima to participate in the electoral processes without any fear of intimidation. The team spent the entire day conscientising the citizens about the impact of the upcoming election and how they could participate in order to win Zimbabwe for change.

As a member of the local community, Maplanka had noticed how some of the local elders had been easily swayed by Zanu PF members during the past elections. She is determined not to let it happen again, so she decided to take action by actively campaigning for the party in the area.

They went door-to-door, talking to the elders about the importance of voting and how their votes could impact their lives.

They assured them that this time around, they will not be misled by any political opportunist.

"Today I spent my day at Ward 15, Vulindlela, Bulilima, Plumtree. This time around we will ensure that all our elders vote for @CCCZimbabwe no one will ever mislead them again. #VoteCCC #This-Time #KangeneZwakheUja-ha," Maplanka tweeted.
