Citizens Coalition for Change (CCC) leader, Advocate Nelson Chamisa Thursday met with an eight-member delegation representing the All-Africa Conference of Churches (AACC) ahead of the 23rd August general elections.

The group came on an ecumenical solidarity visit to assess Zimbabwe's political situation.

The religious organization represents more than 200 million African Christians in 43 African countries.

Archbishop Martin Blaise Nyaboho (Burundi), Archbishop Maimbo Mndolwa (Tanzania), Dr. Gloria Somolekae (Botswana), Father James Oyet Latansio (South Sudan), Ruth Mhone (Malawi), Rev. Pataki Mautji (South Africa), Moderator Rt. Rev. Dr. Bliss Divine Kofi Agbeko (Ghana), and Rev. Charles Berahino (AACC Secretariat, Nairobi) and the Zimbabwe council of churches made up the delegation.

President Chamisa warmly welcomed them and apprised them of Zimbabwe's ongoing political situation ahead of the general elections.

He shared his vision and plan for the country, stressing the critical role of the church in Zimbabwe's renewed democracy.

Citizens Coalition for Change Deputy Spokesperson, Gift Ostallos Siziba, confirmed the meeting of President Chamisa and the AACC delegation.

"President Nelson Chamisa held a meeting with a delegation of eight eminent persons from the All-Africa Conference of Churches (AACC). The AACC group came on an ecumenical solidarity visit ahead of the August elections in Zimbabwe," Siziba said.

He reiterated that Zimbabwe's cohesion and moral fortitude depends on their partnership with the very foundation of Zimbabwe's spiritual and community backbone.

Siziba went on to stress that Zimbabwe deserves a fresh start.

"President Chamisa welcomed the delegation and expressed his assessment of Zimbabwe's position as they enter the shadows of an election. The Presidency shared on our program of action and the role of the church. Zimbabwe deserves a fresh start."

Consequently, President Chamisa's engagement with the delegation indicates the potential for a new beginning, where spiritual and community leadership applications provide a jointly developed policy reform applicable to Zimbabwe's population.

CCC MPs Unite To Fight For Decent Salaries For Civil Servants Amidst Zim Dollar Collapse

By Citizens' Daily Bulletin Correspondent

The Citizens Coalition for Change (CCC) Members of Parliament are taking a stand for Zimbabwe's civil servants by advocating for a salary increment that reflects the current local rates of between Z$5000-Z$7000 against the USD.

In a bold move on Thursday, Hon Charlton Hwende demanded that the Speaker of the House summon the Minister of Finance, Mthuli Ncube to discuss the state of the economy and the collapse of the Zimbabwean dollar.

Hwende expressed his concerns in a tweet, "Today in Parliament we demanded that the Speaker summons the Minister of Finance to come to the House to discuss the State of the economy particularly the collapse of the Zim Dollar.

Next week the Minister will pay soldiers, police and other civil servants the same salaries that they were paid last month when the exchange rate was 927.

Today the exchange rate is over 6000."

Led by Advocate Nelson Chamisa, the CCC has persistently represented the interests of the masses of Zimbabweans, particularly the civil servants who are suffering at the hands of the regime in Harare.

The President has, on numerous occasions, been quoted as saying that citizens must be at the center of everything, meaning citizens are the key stakeholders in the CCC, and their concerns must be addressed.

As the country creeps closer to the next election, the CCC has pledged to pay all civil servants US dollars instead of Zanu PF government's local currency which has significantly lost its value.

CCC Youth Taskforce Kicks Off 2023 Election Campaign

By Citizens' Daily Bulletin Correspondent

The campaign for the upcoming general election on August 23rd in Zimbabwe is well underway and the Citizens Coalition for Change Youth Taskforce are leading the charge for their Presidential candidate, Advocate Nelson Chamisa.

Thursday, they were in the dormitory town of Ruwa canvassing for support in what was a successful voter mobilization campaign.

Led by CCC Youth Taskforce coordinator, Takudzwa Ngadziore, organizing champion, Wombe Nhende and spokesperson Stephen Sarkozy Chuma, the focus of the group is centered on making sure that citizens elect big in this year's upcoming general elections in line with their REAP campaign.

The Youth Taskforce has a transgenerational mandate to ensure that change is achieved in Zimbabwe.

The group believes that the transformational agenda can only be realized under the Presidency of their leader, Advocate Nelson Chamisa.

"In line with our REAP campaign, our focus is now centred on making sure that citizens elect big in this year's upcoming general elections. We have a transgenerational mandate to make sure that we attain change.

"The transformational agenda can only be realised under the Presidency of our leader, Advocate Nelson Chamisa," said the Youth Taskforce spokesperson Stephen Sarkozy Chuma.

The Youth Taskforce has not taken lightly the economic troubles under Mr Mnangagwa's dictatorship, with youths and women being some of the hardest hit.

They believe that the big elephant in the room is Mr Mnangagwa and his ZANU PF government.

That is why their clarion call is for all change champions, especially the youths, to never concentrate on the current internal candidate selection process.

"23 August we have a big chance to put Mnangagwa and his bunch of looters into political dustbins. Voter mobilization must now begin in earnest in every part of the country," said Chuma.

However, the most crucial point from their campaign is that they have an excellent chance of unseating Mr Mnangagwa and his cronies who are alleged to be at the center of looting of the country's natural resources.

With voter mobilization now prioritized in every part of the country, it is believed that the future could be bright for the people of Zimbabwe.

Great Hope Funeral Set To Conduct Zimbabwe Burials: Saved-To-Serve

Not Diggers And Dealers...

On Social Media

The Citizens representatives have been chosen by communities across Zimbabwe. It's so exciting that we have credible representatives for Parliament and Council.

Whoever is after self gain or self care will not serve in the new!
Whoever uses money and trinkets to buy citizens or bribe voters can't serve.
Whoever is tainted, compromised or plays for the other team can't serve!

Zimbabwe needs change and deserves truly new leaders!

Zanu-PF MP Threatens To Seize CCC Change Champion's Farm

■ Barbara Rwodzi is a sitting Member of Parliament for Chirumanzu Constituency from Zanu-PF

By Citizens' Daily Bulletin Correspondent

A sitting Member of Parliament for Chirumanzu Constituency from Zanu PF, Barbara Rwodzi, is accused of threatening to illegally seize a farm belonging to Patrick Cheza, a Citizens Coalition for Change member.

Cheza, an aspiring Member of Parliament for Chirumanzu South, has become a vital force in the local community, which has endangered the existence of Zanu PF in the area.

Recently, he was taken into custody because he had confronted members of a violent and shadowy group, Forever Associates of Zimbabwe, who were interfering with the Zimbabwe Electoral Commission's voters' roll inspection exercise.

Speaking to The Citizens' Daily Bulletin, Cheza confirmed that Rwodzi, Edison Chiherenge, and the local district development coordinator, Mr. Chimedza (formerly known as DA), were planning to snatch his farm.

This contravenes Zimbabwe's constitution, which upholds and enshrines property rights.

According to Cheza, he was approached by Mahidha, a Zanu PF youth from Mvuma, who urgently wanted to see him.

"I was contacted by Mahidha a ZANU PF youth guy based in Mvuma that they want to go to the farm and he needs to see me urgently," Cheza told this publication.

He further divulged that they had gone to his farm twice to plot the illegal invasion.

Rwodzi and Chiherenge who are members of the Central Committee of ZANU are leading the scheme.

"They went to the farm twice before and it was discussed at the meeting held two weeks ago that they want to invade the farm. This is organised by Barbra Rwodzi and Edison Chiherenge of the Central Committee in ZANU," Cheza told this publication."

Cheza was informed that farms were solely meant for Zanu PF people, and the DA had initiated efforts to see Cheza about the farm.

"They are saying farms are meant for ZANU PF people and even the DA has tried to get me to the office about the farm," he said.

Zanu PF party members have made international headlines for wrongfully seizing farms from individuals who don't support their political beliefs. As a result, many legitimate investors have lost faith in Zimbabwe's economy due to the rampant abuse of property rights and violations of constitutional norms.

The country is currently approaching a critical period of national elections, and such violations of constitutional principles must be condemned.
